Overcoming Obstacles and Opposition to the Advance of the Gospel

Is Satan winning? Between the growing hostility to Christianity in America and the troubling reality of unbelief among thousands of unreached people groups abroad, it's easy to feel as if the gospel is losing ground to the powers of sin and hell. And yet Jesus, in Matthew 28:18, said, "all authority in heaven and on earth has been given to me." For that reason, God's people, despite discouraging circumstances and the very real prospect of suffering, have the greatest reason for confidence and even joy. We serve an omnipotent God whose gospel kingdom is indomitable.

Join us for FREE on February 27th, from 7-11 pm in the auditorium for a special simulcast event as we consider why we are undaunted by the darkness—near and far—given the certain victory we have in King Jesus. All are welcome, but this simulcast is geared toward late high school and college aged adults.

NEXT MONTH . . .

Missions Conference 2015

During the Month of March we focus the first four Sundays of the month on Missions. The first week is our Flag Ceremony. If your child(ren) would like to participate in this ceremony, please contact Alison Keilen. Watch the Bulletin for more details.

Church Ministries Conference 2015

June 22-26th

“BY THE WAY, WHAT IS OUR POLICY ON.....”

Prayer Requests - - - Submitted to the Church or Shared in Prayer Meeting

When sharing a prayer request about someone outside your family, you need to have the permission of the immediate family in order to share the request. Please remember that a medical diagnosis, a marital struggle, etc., is considered confidential information.

The only exception to this policy would be events that are common public knowledge. For example, if a person has been injured in an automobile accident which has been reported on the news, then praying generally for the person would be ok.

We certainly want to pray for people in need. But we also want to protect the dignity and privacy of those who do not want their needs made public.

Mighty O.A.K.S.

On Tuesday, January 13th, the Mighty O.A.K.S. had 36 in attendance. After our potluck meal, Beverly Crowell explained how she came up with our new name - The Mighty O.A.K.S. (Older Adult Kingdom Seekers). Dennis Whitlock then spoke about the miracle and perfect plan of God's creation using the Oak Tree as an example.

Our next meeting will be Tuesday, February 10th, at noon in the gym. We will have a meal with your choice of chicken or ribs, potatoes, veggie, salad, and dessert catered by Jimmie Harps. The cost is $9.50 per person or a donation. Please make checks out to First Baptist Church and give it to Kay or Dell Schmidtman or Dennis or Fran Whitlock. Luncheon music will be provided by Danielle & Derek Eilert. More information and sign up is at the Information Area. You must sign up by Sunday, February 1st.

We would enjoy having those of you that have not attended before, join in our Christian fellowship and invite a friend. We meet on the second Tuesday of every month.

Beacon of Hope Update

Christmas Shopping Event

Praise God for a wonderful day! It started with a beautiful worship service attended by 65 participants plus some volunteers. Everything came together perfectly for the service – the music, the message, the singing. This was followed by shopping in the gym. Overall it went very well for the first time having everyone shop at the same time.

Here are a few statistics from the day:

- Number of participants who shopped = 71.
- Number of Adults who received gifts = 104.
- Number of Children who received gifts = 63.
- Number of Grandparents who shopped for Grandchildren = 18.

Beacon Theme verse for 2015

Beacon of Hope's verse for 2015 is Psalm 118: 1 – Give thanks to the LORD, for he is good; his love endures forever. Gail Perez has written a new Bible study for participants based on this verse called, The Goodness of God.

Bibles Needed

If you have copies of the NIV 1984 version of the Bible that you don't need any more, Beacon of Hope will take them. All Beacon Bible studies are based on this version and it is getting harder to get it. Also, Large and Giant Print NIV 1984 Bibles would be especially appreciated.

Volunteers Needed

Beacon needs volunteers to work in the Learn & Earn store on the 4th Tuesday of the month. Older teens are welcome for this job.

AWANA GRAND PRIX

Saturday, February 21, 2014

First Baptist Church Gym

(Please enter the West Entrance off Swegles Street)

If you would like to participate, the cars cost $3.00. On Wednesday, January 28th, Mr. Sheen will be here to cut out your car(s). You need to have your pattern on your piece of wood so he can cut it. Preliminary weigh-in will be on Wednesdays, February 4, 11, and 18. Cars need to be ready to race before weigh-in.

Parents are welcome to race a car too!

Weigh-in and Start Times on Saturday, February 21st, for each Club:

MISSIONS UPDATE:

BUSY HANDS FOR MISSIONS

There were four ladies present at our December and January meetings. We filled 50+ ditty bags for Youth Haven Ranch, completed 106 pillowcase dresses for Brandon and Rachel Buser, and 7 baby quilts and 12 aprons, as well as a few tote bags that were made for Rowena Barnes. Much of the sewing has been done at home, but we have been busy.

If you would like to help with sewing dresses or ditty bags, we still have some fabric available for you to take home.

We will also be sending dresses and shorts to the Busers this spring. If you would like to help with the postage, please see Dee Chapman or Pam Snyder.

Other needs are: combs, washcloths and tooth brushes.

Please save the caps from detergent bottles and diabetic test-strip containers.

Thank you to all who brought in your used eyeglasses for Brooks and Nina Buser.

Our next meeting will be February 3, at 9:30am. Come spend a few hours or all day. We plan to tie off a few quilts that day. All for God's glory

MAILINGS IN DECEMBER

A box of gloves, scarf, knitted hat, note cards, small travel items and vitamins were mailed to Patty Zemmer who flew into cold Indiana on New Year's Eve from Brazil to share in the birth of her grandson. Two baby fleece blankets were also included. She will stay two months.

Scrap booking supplies were donated to Sherri Jenks who delights in this hobby. A box was delivered to her along with hand cream which she says is a necessity for her in her job and the two candles would "make her day!" Her birthday was the end of December.

MISSIONS CLOSET

Thank you to the families who made the Missions Closet the recipient of their Christmas giving. Because of your generosity a great variety of items will go out in Jesus name.

Closet needs at this time: Queen size sheets and dishtowels. You may place these items in the Missions Box located inside the Lost & Found Closet. Thank you for each and every item and gift card.

OTHER ITEMS WE NEED AND ARE COLLECTING

Cancelled commemorative stamps

Old costumed jewelry

Used ink cartridges

Pill bottles

Wrapped happy meal toys (for orphanages)

Children's magazines: Club House from Focus on the Family, Highlights, Kids National Geographic, etc.

You may place these items in the Missions Box located inside the Lost & Found Closet.

THANK YOU'S

Deb Collins writes "Thank you for the birthday gifts. Loved the book, cards, towels, jewelry, hot pads and the soap. What a treat; they made me feel so pampered. Please thank the ladies who were involved." (We mailed Deb the used jewelry that she uses in crafts.)

Michelle George wrote to say thank you for the incredible welcome to their family and the amazing gifts from the missions closet.

MISSIONARY OF THE MONTH: Peggy Marsh (Retired)

Address:

4150 S Tustin Drive
Palmer Alaska 99645

Mission Agency: Baptist Mid-Missions

Began Church planting in Alaska in 1968. Retired in 1996.

Richard (Dick): 1/19/31-9/3/14

Margaret (Peggy): 9/25/31

Married: 9/23/50

Children:

Ken (1951), Janet (1957)

David (1969)

Home Church: Bethany Baptist Church, Grand Blanc, MI

Peggy was born and raised in Flint, Michigan. Her mom and dad were not believers. She was not looking for the Lord but believes He found her. At age 17, she went to church with a friend, heard about salvation, and came to know Jesus.

Dick was also raised in a home without the Lord in Grand Blanc, Michigan. He was saved at a church meeting at age 14 in an Evangelical Brethren church.

Dick and Peggy met at church and started dating at age 18. When they adopted Janet, they were led to Bethany Baptist in Grand Blanc. They took membership classes, were baptized, and became involved in God's work around the age of 30. They worked with the youth, choir, and taught Sunday School classes. Dick was a deacon and on the Board. They were called into missions at a missionary conference in 1963.

Dick and Peggy graduated from Pillsbury Baptist College in Minnesota in 1966. They were on deputation for 19 months and then began work on their first church plant in Alaska. Over the course of their career, Dick and Peggy helped plant three Alaskan churches in Anchor Point, Kodiak, and Palmer. They retired from full-time ministry in 1996.

Although Peggy and Dick had retired, they kept very busy with their church. Peggy used her artistic skills for flower arranging and decorating at the church. She also created decorations and visual aids for ladies' retreats and VBS.

Dick spent a good deal of time in the warmer weather fishing for salmon, hunting caribou, and processing the meat to freeze for winter supply. He also filled the pulpit when other pastors were on vacation.

Dick is now with our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. He went home to be with the Lord September 3, 2014. After nearly 64 years of marriage, Peggy praises the Lord for the many years He gave them. Dick was a wonderful preacher, pastor, missionary, witness, husband and father. Praise God for their life serving the Lord together in Alaska for a total of 46 years. Memorial gifts were used to honor Dick's life as pastor and founder of Pioneer Peak Baptist church (1975).

Food for Thought...A Challenge to be Thinking Christians

How to Distinguish the Holy Spirit from the Serpent

By Sinclair Ferguson

Dr. Sinclair B. Ferguson is professor of systematic theology at Redeemer Seminary in Dallas. He is a visiting professor in the D. Min. program at Ligonier Academy and a teaching fellow of Ligonier Ministries.

How do we distinguish the promptings of the Spirit of grace in His guiding and governing of our lives from the delusions of the spirit of the world and of our own sinful heart? This is a hugely important question if we are to be calm and confident that the spirit with whom we are communing really is the Holy Spirit.

John Owen suggests four ways in which the Spirit and the serpent are to be distinguished:

1. The leading of the Spirit, he says, is regular, that is, according to the regulum: the rule of Scripture. The Spirit does not work in us to give us a new rule of life, but to help us understand and apply the rule contained in Scripture. Thus, the fundamental question to ask about any guidance will be: Is this course of action consistent with the Word of God?
2. The commands of the Spirit are not grievous. They are in harmony with the Word, and the Word is in harmony with the believer as new creation. The Christian believer consciously submitted to the Word will find pleasure in obeying that Word, even if the Lord's way for us is marked by struggle, pain, and sorrow. Christ's yoke fits well; His burden never crushes the spirit. (Matthew 11:28-30)
3. The "motions" of the Spirit are orderly. Just as God's covenant is ordered in all things and secure, (2 Samuel 23:5) so the promised gift of that covenant, the indwelling Spirit, is orderly in the way in which He deals with us. Restlessness is not a mark of communion with the Spirit but of the activity of the evil one. Perhaps Owen had particular members of his congregations in mind when he wrote:

We see some poor souls to be in such bondage as to be hurried up and down, in the matter of duties at the pleasure of Satan. They must run from one to another, and commonly neglect that which they should do. When they are at prayer, then they should be at the work of their calling; and when they are at their calling, they are tempted for not laying all aside and running to prayer. Believers know that this is not from the Spirit of God, which makes "everything beautiful in its season."

4. The "motions," or promptings of the Spirit, Owen says, always tend to glorify God according to His Word. He brings Jesus' teaching into our memories; He glorifies the Savior; He pours into our hearts a profound sense of the love of God for us.

How, then, does the Spirit act on the believer? The Spirit comes to us as an earnest, a pledge, a down payment on final redemption. He is here and now the foretaste of future glory. But His presence is also an indication of the incompleteness of our present spiritual experience.

Owen here writes in sharp contrast to those who spoke of release from the influence of indwelling sin and struggle through the liberty of the Spirit. Precisely because He is the firstfruits and not yet the final harvest, there is a sense in which the indwelling of the Spirit is the cause of the believer's groaning: "We ourselves who have the firstfruits of the Spirit groan inwardly as we wait eagerly for our adoption as sons, the redemption of our bodies." (Romans 8:23) The presence of the Spirit brings us already a foretaste of future glory, but also, simultaneously, creates within us a sense of the incompleteness of our present spiritual experience. This, for Owen, is how communion with the Spirit—understood biblically—brings joy into the life of the believer and yet a deep sense that the fullness of joy is not yet.

It's a Girl!

Congratulations to Lane & Emily Barger on the birth of their daughter, Nyra Jane. Nyra was born on Friday, December 19, 2014. She weighed 5 lbs., 14oz.

Grandparents are Jim & Debi Davis.

To our Church Family,

Thank you so much for the love, support and prayers that you have sent our way over the past few months with Doug's mom's illness and then her passing. We are so thankful to know that she is no longer in pain but is now rejoicing around God's throne. What a beautiful Christmas she must have had this year! Thank you also for the Gideon Bibles that were given in her honor. She would be so pleased to know that someone has a Bible to read in their time of need. Mom's own Bible was well worn and written in. We appreciate all of you and are so thankful for our church family.

Doug, Dawn, Ben, Taylor, Brittany, Adam & Michael Gudbrandson

Dear First Baptist Church,

Craig, Holli, and our family would like to thank the Church for your prayers and support for my father, Lyle Buzzard, who went to be with his Lord and Savior on December 3, 2014. We would also like to thank you for the donation of Gideon Bibles in memory of our father. We ask for continued prayer and support during this difficult time.

Sincerely, Craig & Holli Bishop-Family

Thank you to our church family for all of your cards, gift certificates, food and prayers as we uprooted after 45 years in the same house in St. Johns (A special "thanks" to all 16 of our "movers" that day!) We are pretty well settled into our new apartment at our kids' (Matt, Wendy & grand kids) house already. All four dogs are getting along well, too. Our phone #'s are still the same. Feel free to visit, and see our new "digs"/call ahead though, we are still mobile!! May the Lord continue to bless each of you as you strive to worship and serve Him.

John & Sharon Speck

Many thanks to all who sent cards to honor our 70th Wedding Anniversary! We so enjoyed the young people who came at Christmas Time! We are so blessed.

Love, Al & Louise Law

The families of Bill Richards wish to thank the staff and members of First Baptist Church for your prayers, kindness and care shown to us all following our sudden loss.

I so appreciate Pastor Tim's calls, visit and message. Pam Sischo's sticky buns, Steve Bricker's participation, the donations of food for the luncheon and the people who served it.

Thank you all for your prayers, cards, calls, monetary donations, and the Gideon Bibles given in Bill's name from the Church, The Mighty O.A.K.S. and Shuffleboard Teams.

Jay & Maureen Richards-Family, Laura & Paul Rasmussen-Family, Mary Ellen Richards-Family

Ladies at First Baptist Church:

Thank you for your demonstration of Christ's love to those incarcerated at Christmas. The homemade cookies seem to have a special way of saying, "God Loves You!" Each year we find hearts are softened and more receptive to the gospel because of Christmas at the jail. Thank you for your part in what the Lord is doing.

Chaplain Larry Smith

I wish to say thanks to everyone for caring during the time since my surgery in December. Thank you for the delicious meal that Marie Showers brought in - the fruit basket & sweets, the visit from Ron & Jill Keilen and the very good cookies, for the cards I received, but most of all the prayers. Please keep praying.

In Christ's love, Esther Lichte
