Today's Truth: The gospel offer is for everyone, but it will reach no one unless the Church delivers the message.

Romans 10:9-15

⁹ because, if you confess with your mouth that Jesus is Lord and believe in your heart that God raised him from the dead, you will be saved. ¹⁰ For with the heart one believes and is justified, and with the mouth one confesses and is saved. ¹¹ For the Scripture says, "Everyone who believes in him will not be put to shame." ¹² For there is no distinction between Jew and Greek; for the same Lord is Lord of all, bestowing his riches on all who call on him. ¹³ For "everyone who calls on the name of the Lord will be saved."

¹⁴ How then will they call on him in whom they have not believed? And how are they to believe in him of whom they have never heard? And how are they to hear without someone preaching? ¹⁵ And how are they to preach unless they are sent? As it is written, "How beautiful are the feet of those who preach the good news!"

I. The gospel offer is for everyone (v.9-13)

A. The promise is simple (v.9-10)

B. The scope is universal (v.11-13)

II. The gospel offer will reach no one unless the Church delivers the message (v.14-15)

A. Before anyone can call upon Christ, they must first believe in him (v.14)

B. Before anyone can believe in him, they must first be told about him (v.14)

C. Before anyone can know about him, there must be a preacher in their midst (v.14)

D. Before that preacher can speak, he must first be sent (v.15)
