“Goers and Senders: God’s Plan for the Nations”
Romans 10:13-15

“These verses are the great charter for foreign mission enterprises. They are the argument for the necessity and the urgency of taking the good news of salvation to all countries under the sun.”—Martyn Lloyd Jones

In Romans 10:13-15

Romans 10:13-15

1. God _____ sinners

It’s an act that is _____, not that they have achieved!

The Bible says no, the problem isn’t outside of you, _____.

2. _____ in Missions

John Piper, based on Romans 10:13-15, says that there are three responses the Christian has to missions. Goers, Senders or Disobeyers.

God uses ordinary means to bring his message to the world, he uses his people.

A. Goers need to be _____

One of the tragedies that has taken place in the last 100 years is the lowering of the bar in missions. The ones who head overseas with the message of life need to be our BEST, ones that the church aches to send because they are future of the church, the best the brightest.

B. Goers need to _____

I Corinthians 1:21

The remaining language groups of the world can never understand the gospel until someone goes and preaches the Word to them. A message, through a messenger, who can preach, proclaim, and defend the message of truth, must be brought to them.

C. Goers must see _____ this world!

“One dear Christian saint cried: 'The cannibals, you will be eaten by the cannibals!'—The Autobiography of John G. Paton

3. _____ in Missions

Romans 10:15

A. Good Senders raise their _____ to be Goers

Everyone loves the idea of Goers in missions as long as we are talking about _____ sons and daughters

B. Good Senders allow the Great Commission to _____

III John 5,7,9

C. Good Senders are _____ members

The Bible knows nothing of lone ranger Christians that go out apart from the local church, it also knows nothing of faithful Christians who are not faithful to the local Church.
